Essential Documents Every Driver in Spain Must Carry

The 3 Essential Documents Every Driver in Spain Must Carry

Whether you're doing the school run in Marbella or heading to the beach in Benidorm, Spanish law is clear: you must have three specific documents in your car at all times.

Missing even one can result in fines or your vehicle being towed.

Required Car Documents in Spain

Make sure you have the following valid and original (or certified copy) documents in your vehicle:

- Driving Licence (Permiso de Conducir)
 - o Proof that you're legally allowed to drive.
- Vehicle Registration Certificate (Permiso de Circulación)
 - o Confirms your car is registered and road-legal.
- ITV Certificate or ITV Card (Tarjeta ITV)
 - o Shows your vehicle has passed the technical inspection and is roadworthy.

Note: Photocopies are not accepted unless officially certified.

Rental Cars Are No Exception

Even if you're renting a car, these same documents must be present in the vehicle. Always check the glovebox before driving off.

Going Digital? Use the miDGT App

- The miDGT app allows you to carry your driving licence and vehicle registration digitally.
- These are legally valid in Spain.
- Be aware: if your phone dies or you can't log in, you're out of luck.

Lost or Damaged Documents?

Act quickly to replace them. If stolen, report to the police to prevent misuse.

To replace:

Vehicle Registration Certificate (Permiso de Circulación)

- Apply online or in person via the DGT.
- First, check your vehicle status with the free "Informe Reducido" tool on the DGT website.
- Costs:
 - Free for updates like a name change.
 - €20.81 for major updates (e.g. change of ownership).
 - €8.67 for minor changes.

ITV Certificate (Tarjeta ITV)

- If registered before May 2016: visit an authorised ITV station.
- If registered after May 2016 and you have an eITV: apply via the DGT.
- Fee: €8.67

Final Reminder

These three documents (or their digital versions) are non-negotiable:

- Licence
- Registration
- ITV Certificate

Failing to carry them could lead to fines, delays, or your car being impounded.

Stay legal, stay prepared, and enjoy the drive.

English Phrase

How are you?

Nice to meet you.

Can you help me, please?

I don't understand.

Can you speak more slowly?

What does this mean?

Frase en inglés

¿Cómo estás?

Mucho gusto. / Encantado de conocerte.

¿Puedes ayudarme, por favor?

No entiendo.

¿Puedes hablar más despacio?

Alicante to New York a Step Closer

We're excited to share promising news for international travellers and property owners at Alenda Golf — a direct air link between Alicante and New York is one step closer to becoming a reality.

High-Level Talks in the U.S.

Carlos Mazón, President of the Generalitat Valenciana, recently met with Scott Jordan, General Director of Sales at DELTA Airlines, during an official visit to New York. Their discussions focused on restoring a direct transatlantic flight route connecting the Valencian Community and the United States.

Why It Matters for Our Region

President Mazón emphasised the growing demand from American visitors and highlighted what makes our region truly attractive:

- Exceptional gastronomy and Mediterranean lifestyle
- A strong offering in sports tourism, especially golf
- Rich cultural heritage
- High-quality health and wellness tourism
- Increasing popularity of cruise travel along the coast

DELTA Shows Strong Interest

DELTA Airlines is said to be closely watching tourism trends in our region. With steady growth in international visitor numbers and an emphasis on high-value, experience-driven tourism, the airline is reportedly encouraged by the potential of this direct connection.

Looking Ahead

While no official announcement has been made yet, the tone of the meeting suggests that an agreement may be on the horizon.

A direct Alicante–New York flight would be a game-changer for:

- Holidaymakers
- Second-home owners
- Investors
- Golf enthusiasts from both sides of the Atlantic

As always, we'll keep you updated on this exciting development. For property owners and visitors to Alenda Golf, increased international connectivity is yet another reason to love where you live — or invest.

Alicante–Nueva York, Cada Vez Más Cerca...

Translated
Ai Española

¡Nos complace compartir una noticia muy prometedora para los viajeros internacionales y propietarios de viviendas en Alenda Golf: un enlace aéreo directo entre Alicante y Nueva York está cada vez más cerca de convertirse en realidad!

Reuniones de Alto Nivel en EE.UU.

Carlos Mazón, presidente de la Generalitat Valenciana, se reunió recientemente con Scott Jordan, director general de ventas de DELTA Airlines, durante una visita oficial a Nueva York. En el encuentro, abordaron la posibilidad de restablecer un vuelo transatlántico directo que conecte la Comunidad Valenciana con Estados Unidos.

¿Por Qué Es Importante Para Nuestra Región?

El presidente Mazón destacó la creciente demanda por parte de los visitantes estadounidenses y señaló los principales atractivos de nuestra región:

- Una gastronomía excepcional y el estilo de vida mediterráneo
- Una sólida oferta en turismo deportivo, especialmente el golf
- Un rico patrimonio cultural
- Turismo de salud y bienestar de alta calidad
- La creciente popularidad de los cruceros por nuestra costa

DELTA Muestra Gran Interés

DELTA Airlines está siguiendo de cerca las tendencias turísticas en nuestra región. Con un crecimiento constante en el número de visitantes internacionales y una apuesta por un turismo de calidad, basado en experiencias, la aerolínea se muestra muy alentada por el potencial de esta conexión directa.

Mirando al Futuro

Aunque todavía no se ha realizado un anuncio oficial, el tono de la reunión sugiere que un acuerdo podría estar próximo. Un vuelo directo Alicante–Nueva York supondría un cambio muy positivo para:

- Turistas
- Propietarios de segundas residencias
- Inversores
- Aficionados al golf de ambos lados del Atlántico

Como siempre, os mantendremos informados sobre esta emocionante evolución. Para los propietarios y visitantes de Alenda Golf, una mayor conectividad internacional es una razón más para amar el lugar donde vives — o inviertes.

Spain Issues Warning About Scam Calls – How to Stay Protected

Spain's National Police are warning residents about a rise in scam calls and advising the public to take simple steps to stay safe.

What's Happening:

- Scam calls, especially those from unknown numbers, are on the rise in Spain.
- These often involve voice phishing (vishing), where fraudsters pretend to be from trusted institutions to obtain personal or financial information.

How to Protect Yourself:

- Silence unknown numbers: Most smartphones now offer a feature that silences calls from unknown numbers. You won't be disturbed, but the call will appear in your log and voicemail.
- Use call detection apps: These can identify and label suspicious calls as spam or sales, and in some cases, block them automatically.
- Enable call filtering: Many devices have built-in settings to filter or block suspicious numbers once set up.
- Look for verified callers: Some phone apps now show a verification badge for trusted businesses, helping you distinguish between real and scam calls.

Why It Matters:

- Cybercrime is becoming more sophisticated, and even brief conversations with scammers can lead to identity theft or financial loss.
- Taking just a few minutes to adjust your settings or install a protective app can provide greater peace of mind.

Stay informed and vigilant to avoid becoming the next victim.

Spain Cracks Down on Budget Airlines Over Hidden Fees

Spain is tightening the screws on budget airlines, hitting Wizzair and Transavia with legal action for what it calls "illegal" fees—following a €179 million fine slapped on Ryanair, EasyJet, Norwegian, Volotea, and Vueling in late 2024.

Spanish Consumer Affairs Minister Pablo Bustinduy accused the carriers of charging for basic services like cabin bags, seating families together, and printing boarding passes. Speaking in Brussels, he warned more penalties could follow: "Any company using these abusive tactics will be treated the same."

The EU's top consumer watchdog, BEUC, has now escalated the matter to the European Commission, filing a formal complaint against all seven airlines. As Spain pushes for tougher enforcement, the airlines claim the fines are excessive.

For residents and visitors near Alenda Golf and across Spain, this marks a major move to protect consumer rights in the skies.

España emite una advertencia sobre llamadas fraudulentas – Cómo protegerse

La Policía Nacional de España ha alertado a los ciudadanos sobre el aumento de las llamadas fraudulentas y recomienda tomar medidas sencillas para mantenerse a salvo.

Qué está ocurriendo:

- Las llamadas sospechosas, especialmente de números desconocidos, están aumentando en todo el país.
- Muchas de ellas están relacionadas con el vishing (suplantación de identidad por voz), donde los estafadores se hacen pasar por entidades de confianza para obtener datos personales o bancarios.

Cómo protegerte:

- Silenciar llamadas desconocidas: La mayoría de los smartphones permiten activar una función que silencia automáticamente las llamadas de números no guardados. La llamada no sonará, pero quedará registrada y llegará al buzón de voz.
- Usar apps de detección de llamadas: Estas aplicaciones identifican y etiquetan números sospechosos como spam o ventas, e incluso pueden bloquearlos automáticamente.
- Activar el filtrado de llamadas: Muchos dispositivos incluyen opciones para filtrar o bloquear llamadas sospechosas de forma automática.
- Buscar llamadas verificadas: Algunas aplicaciones telefónicas muestran una insignia de verificación junto al número de empresas legítimas, lo que ayuda a distinguir entre una llamada real y una estafa.

Por qué es importante:

- La ciberdelincuencia es cada vez más sofisticada, y una simple conversación con un estafador puede derivar en robo de identidad o pérdida de dinero.
- Tomarte unos minutos para ajustar la configuración de tu móvil o instalar una app de seguridad puede darte mucha tranquilidad.

Mantente informado y alerta para no convertirte en la próxima víctima.

Breaking News

BREAKING
NEWS

Cigarette Prices Rise in Spain

Smokers in Spain should be aware of price changes coming into effect from Saturday, April 6, following an official update published in the Boletín Oficial del Estado (BOE).

Key Points:

- Cigarette prices have increased across mainland Spain and the Balearic Islands.
- This is part of a continuing trend to align with EU pricing standards, though Spain still has some of the lowest tobacco prices in Europe.
- The changes apply to standard cigarettes, slim versions, rolling tobacco, and pipe tobacco.
- Cigars and pipe blends are also affected by the update.
- The increase falls under Spain's tobacco regulation law (Law 13/1998), which governs pricing and tax policies.

What This Means:

- Smokers who buy regularly will feel the impact of these steady price rises.
- Although still cheaper than many other European countries, the gap is closing.
- With EU public health policies pushing for reduced tobacco consumption, further increases are likely.

Noticias de última hora... ..

Suben los precios de los cigarrillos en España

Los fumadores en España deben estar atentos a los cambios de precios que entraron en vigor el sábado 6 de abril, según una actualización oficial publicada en el Boletín Oficial del Estado (BOE).

Puntos clave:

- Los precios de los cigarrillos han subido en toda la península y en las Islas Baleares.
- Esta medida forma parte de una tendencia continua para alinearse con los estándares de precios de la Unión Europea, aunque España sigue teniendo uno de los precios de tabaco más bajos de Europa.
- Los cambios afectan a los cigarrillos estándar, versiones slim, tabaco de liar y tabaco de pipa.
- Los puros y las mezclas para pipa también se ven afectados por esta actualización.
- El aumento está regulado por la Ley del Tabaco en España (Ley 13/1998), que establece las políticas fiscales y de precios.

¿Qué significa esto?

- Los fumadores habituales notarán el impacto de estas subidas de precio constantes.
- Aunque el tabaco en España sigue siendo más barato que en muchos otros países europeos, la diferencia se está reduciendo.
- Las políticas de salud pública de la UE que buscan reducir el consumo de tabaco indican que probablemente se producirán nuevas subidas en el futuro.

Free Drivers License Renewals for Over 70 in Spain

BREAKING
NEWS

Free Licence Renewals for Drivers Over 70 in Spain

- Who benefits: Drivers aged 70 and older in Spain can now renew their licences for free.
- What changed: The DGT (Spain's traffic authority) has removed the €24.58 renewal fee for seniors.
- Why it matters: This move helps older drivers, especially those on tight budgets or who rely on their car for daily life, by reducing expenses.

How it works:

- No extra steps: Once you turn 70, the renewal fee is automatically waived—no special request needed.
- Still required:
 - Renew your licence like everyone else.
 - Ensure documents are updated.
 - Submit a recent photo.
 - Pass a medical exam to prove you're fit to drive.
- Renewal options: You can renew online or in person at a local traffic office.
- Important notes:
 - Health check: If you fail the medical exam or don't have the certificate, your renewal won't be processed.
 - Paperwork: Missing or outdated documents (like photos or personal info) can delay the process.
 - Safety first: The DGT will still deny renewal if they believe you're unfit to drive, even if the renewal is free.

Why the change?:

- This initiative aims to support seniors' mobility, especially in rural areas where public transport is limited. It helps them remain independent and safe on the road.

Ten Most Basic Rules to Know for Playing Golf

Knowing these basic rules not only keeps the game fair and honest, but also helps you steer clear of any awkward penalties or even disqualification during tournaments.

Plus, being clued up on the essentials means you'll feel much more confident playing alongside others—no need to worry about making embarrassing mistakes in front of your mates!

And if you ever find yourself unsure about a particular situation, just have a quick look at the official USGA or R&A Rulebook — they're always handy for settling any tricky questions.

Ten Most Basic Rules to Know

1. Carry No More Than 14 Clubs

You are only allowed a maximum of 14 clubs in your bag during a round. Exceeding this limit results in penalties or disqualification.

2. Play the Ball as It Lies

You must play the ball from where it comes to rest, without moving or improving its position, unless the rules specifically allow relief.

3. Tee Off Behind the Markers

When starting a hole, your ball must be teed up behind the tee markers and within two club lengths behind them. Playing from in front of the markers incurs a penalty.

4. Be on Time for Your Tee Time

Arrive at your starting tee on time. Being late can result in penalties or even disqualification from the tournament.

5. Know and Follow Out of Bounds and Penalty Area Rules

If your ball goes out of bounds or into a penalty area (such as water hazards), you must take the appropriate penalty and follow relief procedures, usually replaying from the original spot or taking a drop with a penalty stroke.

6. Identify and Play Your Own Ball

Always make sure to play your own ball. Mark it for identification. Playing a wrong ball can lead to penalties or disqualification.

7. Three-Minute Ball Search Limit

You have only three minutes to search for a lost ball. If not found within that time, the ball is considered lost, and you must take a penalty and play another ball.

8. Complete the Hole Properly

A hole is complete only when your ball is holed (comes to rest in the cup). Always finish each hole before moving on.

9. Play in the Correct Order

In stroke play, the player with the lowest score on the previous hole tees off first. During play, the player farthest from the hole hits next. In match play, honors go to the previous hole's winner.

10. Apply Penalties and Call Them on Yourself

Golf is largely self-regulated. You are responsible for knowing and applying the rules, including calling penalties on yourself when necessary.

Common Mistakes When Teeing Up Behind Markers

1. Teeing Up in Front of the Markers

- The most frequent error is placing the ball even slightly in front of the tee markers, outside the defined teeing area. Many golfers focus on finding a good spot and lose track of the markers, sometimes teeing up a foot or more ahead without realising it.

2. Misunderstanding the Teeing Area Boundaries

- Golfers often assume the entire mown area or tee box is fair game. In reality, the teeing area is a rectangle defined by the front and outer edges of the markers and extends two club lengths back. Only the ball needs to be within this area—your feet can be outside it.

3. Not Using the Full Width or Depth of the Teeing Area

- Some players don't realise they can tee up anywhere within the full width and two club-length depth of the teeing area, which could help them find a better lie or angle for their shot.

4. Standing Inside but Ball Outside the Teeing Area

- The rules require only the ball to be inside the area, but some golfers mistakenly think both their feet and the ball must be within the markers.

El Truco de Cocina para Ahuyentar las Moscas en España

Translated
Ai Española

¿Las moscas te están volviendo loco en el calor español?

Hay una solución sencilla y natural que muchos británicos están utilizando, ¡y ya la tienes en tu cocina!

A medida que suben las temperaturas en toda España, desde Málaga hasta Madrid, las moscas también se hacen presentes. Están rondando tus comidas, aterrizando en tus bebidas y arruinando tu tranquilidad en el patio.

Pero en lugar de recurrir a productos químicos agresivos, muchos expatriados están optando por un enfoque más natural: las hojas de laurel.

Estas hojas, que suelen usarse en la cocina, en realidad son un potente repelente de insectos. Las hojas de laurel liberan aceites naturales como el cineol y el eugenol, que resultan desagradables para las moscas (¡y hasta para las hormigas!), manteniéndolas alejadas de tu hogar.

¿Cómo usarlas?

- Coloca hojas de laurel enteras cerca de ventanas y puertas para evitar que entren moscas
- Coloca hojas de laurel en tu despensa o armarios para mantener alejados a los insectos
- Rompe o hierva las hojas para liberar un aroma más intenso
- Para un toque decorativo, mezcla hojas de laurel con clavos de olor y limón para crear un repelente de insectos natural y elegante

Bonus: Las hojas de laurel no solo huelen maravillosamente y lucen elegantes, sino que también ofrecen una forma segura y libre de productos químicos para mantener a raya a los insectos.

Económicas, efectivas y naturales, ¡las hojas de laurel son el truco definitivo para tener un hogar libre de moscas este verano!

The Clever Kitchen Trick Brits Are Using to Keep Flies Away in Spain

Struggling with flies in the Spanish heat?

There's a simple, all-natural solution that many Brits are turning to – and it's already in your kitchen.

As temperatures rise across Spain, from Malaga to Madrid, the flies are making their presence known.

They're circling your meals, diving into your drinks, and disrupting your outdoor relaxation.

But instead of relying on harsh chemicals, many expats are embracing a more natural approach: bay leaves.

These unassuming leaves, often used in cooking, are actually a powerful insect repellent.

Bay leaves release natural oils like cineol and eugenol, which are unpleasant for flies (and even ants), making them steer clear of your space.

Here's how to use them:

- Place whole bay leaves near windows and doors to deter flies from entering
- Line your pantry or cupboards with bay leaves to keep insects at bay
- Crumble or boil them to release a stronger scent
- For a stylish touch, mix bay leaves with cloves and lemon for an attractive, natural insect repellent

Bonus: Not only do bay leaves smell lovely and look chic, but they also provide a safe, chemical-free way to keep pests away.

Affordable, effective, and natural – bay leaves are the ultimate summer hack for a fly-free home.

Full English just £4.50

BREAKING
NEWS

A British man holidaying in Tenerife has sparked a wave of online reactions after posting his amazement at the price of a full English breakfast.

On the plate: two rashers of bacon, two sausages, toast, grilled tomato, and two fried eggs – all under the warm Canarian sun.

And all for just €4.60, which means less than a pint back home in the UK. "It's mad," he said in his video, according to The Mirror.

Spain's 2025 Pedestrian Crackdown

Fines Up to €500 for Rule-Breakers

Spanish authorities are tightening pedestrian safety laws, with new penalties aimed at reducing accidents caused by careless foot traffic. The Dirección General de Tráfico (DGT) is shifting focus from just drivers to also hold pedestrians accountable for unsafe behaviour.

What's Changing?

- Pedestrians can now be fined up to €500 for breaking traffic laws.
- The DGT aims to reduce risks caused by:
 - Jaywalking
 - Ignoring pedestrian signals
 - Walking while distracted (e.g., using phones)
 - Crossing highways or dual carriageways

Texting While Walking? That's €200

- Using a phone while crossing the road is now considered a safety risk.
- Ignoring traffic signals or a traffic officer while distracted can result in €200 fines.
- Entering a motorway or dual carriageway on foot could lead to an €80 fine.

Jaywalking Costs More Now

- Not using designated crossings like zebra crossings = €80 fine.
- Crossing during a red pedestrian signal is also penalised.
- In case of an accident, pedestrians may now share liability, changing the long-standing bias that blamed drivers by default.

Refuse a Drug/Alcohol Test? That's €500

- Pedestrians involved in road incidents who refuse a sobriety test could be fined up to €500, the same as drivers.

The DGT's Message: Safety is Everyone's Job

- Pedestrian behaviour impacts overall road safety.
- The law applies whether you're behind the wheel or on foot.

Stay Safe, Stay Legal – DGT Tips:

- Use zebra crossings correctly.
- Avoid using phones while crossing.
- Always follow pedestrian lights and traffic signals.
- Never walk on highways or fast roads.
- Stay alert – roads are shared spaces.

These regulations are part of Spain's Real Decreto 1428/2003, which outlines traffic rules for both drivers and pedestrians. The goal is simple: reduce accidents and improve shared responsibility on Spanish roads.

What's Happening in Central Spain?

A new map highlighting Spain's population distribution has gone viral, drawing attention to a surprising pattern in the country's geography. Here's what we know:

• The "Empty Doughnut" Theory:

- Spain's population is largely concentrated around the coastal edges and major cities, with the central region mostly uninhabited.
- Coastal cities like Barcelona, Valencia, and Málaga, along with Madrid, hold the majority of Spain's population.
- The central area, known as "La España vacía" (Empty Spain), is sparsely populated, with some areas having just 8 people per square kilometre.

• Key Facts:

- 90% of Spaniards live outside the central interior.
- Only 30% of Spain's land is home to most of the population.
- Despite its vast size, the centre of Spain remains one of the most depopulated regions in Europe.

• Can Central Spain Be Revived?

- There have been efforts to revitalise rural areas, such as Almadrones, a small village offering generous incentives for newcomers.
- The village offers €1,000–€1,600 per month, free food, rent-free housing, and remote work opportunities to attract residents.

• The Bigger Picture:

- While cities thrive, Spain's rural heartland faces ongoing decline, leaving the question: can these quiet regions be brought back to life?

The map has raised important questions about the future of Spain's quieter interior and its potential for renewal.

The map showcasing Spain's "Empty Doughnut" theory highlights the country's uneven population, with most people living along the coast and in major cities, leaving the central interior largely uninhabited.

Your Friendly Local Supermarket – Dicost

The Dicost supermarket has just about everything you could need, including a wide selection of popular European brands and speciality items.

Owned and managed by the incredibly friendly and customer-focused Adrian and Alain, this local gem offers a truly personal shopping experience. You'll be hard-pressed to find better service anywhere.

Adrian and Alain are passionate supporters of Elche Football Club. Sadly, the team is currently in Spain's second division – so why not show them a little support as well?

If they don't stock what you're looking for, just ask – they'll do their utmost to get it in for you.

They also offer a convenient delivery service to Alenda Golf, and their bread – freshly baked throughout the day – is hands down the best in the area.

The fresh fruit, salads, and vegetables are all excellent quality and very reasonably priced – perfect for healthy meals and snacks.

You'll also find a large chilled and frozen section stocked with all your everyday essentials. Don't forget to browse the wine and beer section – there's a great variety to choose from.

And if you're a fan of a good steak, be sure to try their fillet – it's well worth it!

El supermercado Dicost tiene prácticamente todo lo que puedas necesitar, incluyendo una amplia selección de marcas europeas populares y productos especiales.

Propiedad y gestión de los increíblemente amables y orientados al cliente Adrian y Alain, esta joya local ofrece una experiencia de compra verdaderamente personal. Te costará encontrar un mejor servicio en otro lugar.

Adrian y Alain son apasionados seguidores del Elche Club de Fútbol. Lamentablemente, el equipo está actualmente en la segunda división de España – así que, ¿por qué no mostrarles también un poco de apoyo?

Si no tienen lo que estás buscando, solo tienes que pedirlo – harán todo lo posible por conseguirlo para ti.

También ofrecen un cómodo servicio de entrega a Alenda Golf, y su pan – recién horneado durante todo el día – es, sin duda, el mejor de la zona.

Las frutas frescas, ensaladas y verduras son de excelente calidad y tienen precios muy razonables – perfectos para comidas y tentempiés saludables.

También encontrarás una gran sección de productos refrigerados y congelados con todos los productos básicos del día a día. No olvides echar un vistazo a la sección de vinos y cervezas – hay una gran variedad para elegir.

Y si eres amante de un buen filete, no dejes de probar su solomillo – ¡realmente vale la pena!

Protege Tu Piel Este Verano

Translated

Descubre la verdad detrás de los mitos más comunes

Mito: No necesitas protector solar en interiores.

Realidad: Incluso cuando estás dentro de casa, ciertos rayos UV pueden alcanzar tu piel a través de las ventanas del coche, la oficina o el hogar. Los estudios han demostrado que aunque los parabrisas bloquean la mayoría de los rayos UVA, las ventanas laterales ofrecen mucha menos protección. Esto podría explicar por qué se observa más daño solar en el lado del rostro más cercano a la ventana al conducir.

Mito: Un bronceado ligero es saludable.

Realidad: Muchas personas creen que un bronceado leve protege contra futuras quemaduras solares, pero en realidad cualquier bronceado es una señal de daño en la piel. Con el tiempo, este daño puede acumularse y aumentar el riesgo de padecer problemas cutáneos más serios.

Mito: El protector solar resistente al agua no se quita.

Realidad: Ningún protector solar es completamente impermeable. Incluso los etiquetados como resistentes al agua pierden efectividad al nadar o sudar. Para mantener la protección, es importante secarse y volver a aplicar el producto con regularidad, especialmente después de actividades acuáticas o cada dos horas si estás al aire libre.

Mito: Todos los protectores solares funcionan igual.

Realidad: No todos los productos de protección solar ofrecen el mismo nivel de defensa. Su efectividad varía según los ingredientes y el factor de protección solar (FPS). Para una cobertura adecuada, elige una fórmula de amplio espectro con un FPS de al menos 30 que contenga ingredientes eficaces contra los rayos UVA y UVB.

Mito: Estar en la sombra te protege completamente del sol.

Realidad: Aunque estar bajo un árbol, una sombrilla o un toldo puede reducir la exposición directa al sol, no elimina el riesgo. Los rayos UV pueden reflejarse en superficies como la arena, el agua o el pavimento, lo que significa que tu piel sigue estando expuesta. Usar protector solar sigue siendo esencial, incluso en la sombra.

Protect Your Skin This Summer

Know the Truth Behind

Common Myths

Myth: Sunscreen isn't necessary indoors.

Reality: Even when you're inside, certain UV rays can still reach your skin through windows in your car, home, or office. Research has shown that while windshields tend to block most UVA rays, side windows offer significantly less protection. This may explain why more sun damage is often seen on the side of the face closest to the window while driving.

Myth: A light tan means your skin is healthy.

Reality: Many believe a slight tan offers protection against future sunburns, but the truth is that any tan is a sign of skin damage. Over time, this damage can build up and increase the chances of developing more serious skin issues.

Myth: Waterproof sunscreen doesn't wash off.

Reality: No sunscreen is completely waterproof. Even those labeled as water-resistant will lose effectiveness after swimming or sweating. To stay protected, it's important to dry off and reapply regularly — especially after water activities or every couple of hours when outdoors.

Myth: All sunscreens work the same way.

Reality: Not all sun protection products are equally effective. The level of protection can vary depending on the ingredients and SPF rating. For solid coverage, choose a broad-spectrum formula with at least SPF 30 that includes ingredients known to block both UVA and UVB rays.

Myth: Sitting in the shade means you don't need sunscreen.

Reality: Shade does help reduce direct sun exposure, but it doesn't eliminate risk. UV rays can reflect off surfaces like sand, water, and concrete — meaning your skin can still be exposed. Wearing sunscreen is still essential, even under an umbrella or tree.

Spain Might Be the Key — Not Superfoods

Spain is expected to top global life expectancy charts by 2030 — and it's not due to superfoods or high-tech medicine.

According to longevity expert Dan Buettner, the Spanish lifestyle holds key secrets to healthy aging.

Why Spain Stands Out

• Long Life Expectancy

- As of 2022:
 - ♣ Men: 80.4 years
 - ♣ Women: 85.7 years
- Projected for 2035:
 - ♣ Men: 83.2 years
 - ♣ Women: 87.7 years
- Spaniards also enjoy more healthy years, not just long ones.

Longevity Secrets from Spain

- 1. Strong Social Bonds
 - Community life is active and vibrant.
 - Daily gatherings in cafés and plazas reduce loneliness — a major health risk elsewhere.
- 2. Walkable Urban Design
 - Cities like Seville encourage walking and interaction.
 - Car-free zones and preserved historic streets promote daily movement.
- 3. Traditional Mediterranean Diet
 - Staples include olive oil, fresh vegetables, and quality bread.
 - A nourishing, time-tested way of eating.
- 4. Cultural Unity & Celebrations
 - Events like Semana Santa bring people together in powerful, shared experiences.
 - Regular communal gatherings reinforce belonging and emotional health.

Spain: A Future Blue Zone?

Though not yet officially a “Blue Zone,” Spain mirrors the lifestyles of long-lived communities in places like Okinawa and Sardinia. If trends continue, it may soon join that elite group — and lead the world in longevity.

Spain's new bar curfew sparks backlash from UK tourists

British holidaymakers are kicking off after Alicante introduced new curfews to tackle rowdy behaviour. Bars must now close by 12.30am on weekdays and 1am on weekends and holiday eves. Nightclubs shut by 1am midweek, 3am on weekends.

Some Brits say they won't return, but others admit: “With the way some Brits act abroad, it's no surprise. Imagine that happening every night in Brighton or Blackpool!”

Spanish Property Prices Set to Rise 9% by 2026

Singular Bank forecasts Spanish house prices will rise nearly 9% between 2025 and 2026, driven by lower interest rates, strong population growth, and rising household incomes.

The bank expects disposable income to grow by 5.5% in 2025 and 4.5% in 2026, with household income rising faster than inflation. Improved affordability and credit access, thanks to an expected Euribor low of 2% in summer 2025, will also boost demand.

Mortgage strain eased to 34.4% in 2024, close to the long-term average, indicating stable affordability. Sale and rental prices are expected to rise by 5% in 2025 and 3.5% in 2026.

Los precios de la vivienda en España aumentarán un 9 % para 2026

Singular Bank prevé que los precios de la vivienda en España subirán casi un 9 % entre 2025 y 2026, impulsados por tipos de interés más bajos, un sólido crecimiento de la población y un aumento de las rentas familiares.

El banco espera que la renta disponible crezca un 5,5 % en 2025 y un 4,5 % en 2026, con ingresos familiares aumentando más rápido que la inflación. Una mejor accesibilidad económica y acceso al crédito, gracias a un Euríbor que se situará en torno al 2 % en el verano de 2025, también estimularán la demanda.

La presión hipotecaria se redujo al 34,4 % en 2024, cerca de la media histórica, lo que indica una estabilidad en la capacidad de pago. Se espera que los precios de venta y alquiler suban un 5 % en 2025 y un 3,5 % en 2026.

How to Spot Surprise Electricity Charges – And What You Can Do About It

Worried about unexpected fees on your energy bill? Here's how to stay informed and what steps to take if you think you're being overcharged:

Check your latest bill carefully

Look out for any unfamiliar charges, especially those listed as:

- Servicios de Ajuste del Sistema
- SSAA
- Costes Regulados

Review your tariff

Even if you're on a fixed-rate contract, these regulated surcharges might still apply.

It's worth comparing options—particularly if your contract is ending soon.

Don't skip the small print

Before renewing or switching energy providers, read the terms closely.

Many suppliers include clauses that allow them to add extra charges at short notice.

Take action quickly

If you spot an unexpected fee, get in touch with your provider straight away.

Stay alert to future changes

Some suppliers are openly increasing rates from June or July.

Others are introducing new charges more subtly—so keep an eye on your monthly statements.

Heads up for households in Spain:

Electricity bills are expected to rise this summer, not just due to seasonal demand, but also because of national grid improvements and new government-imposed fees following April's blackout. Even fixed-rate customers may notice higher costs—so it's wise to double-check your latest bill (factura).

Bank Scam Alert in Spain

Bank Scam Alert in Spain: What to Do if You Get a Suspicious Text

Spain's Guardia Civil has issued a warning about a surge in 'smishing' scams – fake bank messages sent by text to steal your personal details.

What is 'Smishing'?

A scam where criminals send fake texts pretending to be your bank.

These messages urge you to click a link and enter sensitive information like login details or card numbers.

The goal: to access your bank account and steal your money.

How It Works

The message may claim:

- Your account is frozen.
- You need to verify or update your details urgently.
- It often looks genuine to create panic or catch you when distracted.
- Even a small number of people falling for it means big profits for scammers.

Guardia Civil's Key Advice

- Be cautious with unexpected texts, especially those demanding urgent action.
- Banks will never ask for personal details via SMS – if they do, it's a scam.

What To Do If You Receive a Suspicious Bank Text in Spain

Follow this checklist:

- Don't click on links in unexpected texts.
- Never share personal or banking info via SMS.
- If the message feels urgent or threatening – stop and double-check.
- Contact your bank directly using official channels.

Final Tip

Smishing isn't just a problem in Spain – it's a global issue.

If you get a dodgy-looking message about your bank account, remember: pause, think, delete.

Let's Keep Alenda Clean:

5 Reasons to Control Where Your Pets Go

There's nothing quite like a peaceful stroll around Alenda Golf – the fresh air, the views, the sense of wellbeing. But lately, more walkers and joggers have been dodging something less pleasant... dog and cat mess on the pavements and paths.

We love our furry friends here at Alenda, but it's time for a gentle reminder: please don't let your pets foul the streets where people are walking, strolling or jogging.

With all the open campo surrounding the golf course, there's no excuse not to head there instead.

5 Reasons Here's why it matters:

1. It's a health hazard

Pet waste carries bacteria and parasites that can be harmful to children, adults and other animals. Let's keep the community safe.

2. It ruins the experience

Nothing breaks the mood of a relaxing walk like stepping in something nasty. It's unpleasant for residents, visitors, and tourists alike.

3. It damages our reputation

Alenda is a beautiful place to live and visit – let's not spoil it with something so easily avoided. Clean paths help us all enjoy the area more.

4. It's avoidable

With acres of natural space nearby, there's no reason not to take your dog to the campo. There, they can run, sniff, and do their business in peace.

5. It's about respect

Respect for your neighbours, the community, and the environment. Picking up after your pet is a simple but powerful act of consideration.

Let's all do our bit to keep Alenda beautiful – and our shoes clean.

Mantengamos Alenda Limpio:

5 Razones para Controlar Dónde Hacen Sus Necesidades tus Mascotas

No hay nada como un paseo tranquilo por Alenda Golf: el aire fresco, las vistas y esa sensación de bienestar. Pero últimamente, cada vez más personas que caminan o hacen ejercicio se encuentran esquivando algo bastante desagradable... excrementos de perros y gatos en las aceras y senderos.

Amamos a nuestras mascotas en Alenda, pero es hora de recordar algo importante: por favor, no dejes que tus animales ensucien las calles por donde la gente va caminando, paseando o haciendo footing.

Con todo el campo abierto que rodea el campo de golf, no hay excusa para no llevarlos allí.

Aquí te dejamos 5 buenas razones:

1. Es un riesgo para la salud

Los excrementos de mascotas contienen bacterias y parásitos que pueden ser perjudiciales para niños, adultos y otros animales. Cuidemos la salud de todos.

2. Arruina la experiencia

Nada estropea más un paseo relajante que pisar algo asqueroso. Es desagradable tanto para residentes como para visitantes y turistas.

3. Daña nuestra imagen

Alenda es un lugar hermoso para vivir y visitar. No lo arruinemos con algo tan fácil de evitar. Las calles limpias nos benefician a todos.

4. Es totalmente evitable

Con hectáreas de campo natural cerca, no hay motivo para no llevar a tu perro allí. Podrán correr, olfatear y hacer sus necesidades libremente.

5. Es una cuestión de respeto

Respeto por tus vecinos, por la comunidad y por el entorno. Recoger los excrementos de tu mascota es un gesto sencillo pero muy valioso.

Contribuyamos todos a mantener Alenda bonito... ¡y nuestros zapatos limpios!

Alerta de estafa bancaria en España: qué hacer si recibes un mensaje sospechoso

La Guardia Civil de España ha emitido una advertencia sobre un aumento de las estafas de "smishing": mensajes falsos de bancos enviados por SMS para robar tus datos personales ¿Qué es el 'Smishing'?

Una estafa en la que los delincuentes envían mensajes de texto falsos haciéndose pasar por tu banco.

Estos mensajes te instan a hacer clic en un enlace e introducir información sensible como datos de acceso o números de tarjeta.

El objetivo: acceder a tu cuenta bancaria y robar tu dinero.

Cómo funciona

El mensaje puede afirmar:

- Que tu cuenta está bloqueada.
- Que necesitas verificar o actualizar tus datos urgentemente.
- Suele parecer auténtico para generar pánico o pillarte desprevenido.
- Aunque pocas personas caigan, los estafadores obtienen grandes beneficios.

Consejos clave de la Guardia Civil

- Ten cuidado con mensajes inesperados, especialmente si exigen una acción urgente.
- Los bancos nunca piden datos personales por SMS – si lo hacen, es una estafa.

Qué hacer si recibes un mensaje bancario sospechoso en España

Sigue esta lista:

- No hagas clic en enlaces en mensajes inesperados.
- Nunca compartas información personal o bancaria por SMS.
- Si el mensaje parece urgente o amenazante – detente y verifica.
- Contacta con tu banco directamente usando canales oficiales.

Consejo final

El smishing no es solo un problema en España – es un problema global.

Si recibes un mensaje sospechoso sobre tu cuenta bancaria, recuerda: detente, piensa, elimina.

New Build Home Sales Soar – Golf Living on the Rise!

New build home sales in Spain jumped by 21.6% in 2024 – way ahead of older property sales, which rose just 6.4%. In sunny spots like Andalusia and the Valencian Community, the numbers were even better – up over 30%!

Buyers are loving the healthy lifestyle golf communities offer – peaceful surroundings, green views, fitness, fresh air, and friendly clubhouse vibes.

Whether you're a golfer or not, it's easy to see the appeal!

"Golf course properties provide an exceptional lifestyle experience, whether you're buying a second home or a primary residence.

They uniquely serene feeling of living surrounded by so much greenery means these homes are highly prized – hence strong demand from buyers here within Spain and from overseas." ... Taylor Wimpey España team

Las Ventas de Viviendas de Obra Nueva se Disparan – ¡Vivir en un Campo de Golf Está de Moda!

Las ventas de viviendas de obra nueva en España aumentaron un 21,6% en 2024, muy por delante de las ventas de viviendas de segunda mano, que subieron solo un 6,4%. En lugares soleados como Andalucía y la Comunidad Valenciana, los números fueron aún mejores – ¡superando el 30%!

A los compradores les encanta el estilo de vida saludable que ofrecen las comunidades en campos de golf: entornos tranquilos, vistas verdes, aire fresco, ejercicio y el ambiente acogedor del club social.

¡Y no hace falta ser golfista para disfrutarlo!

"Las propiedades en campos de golf ofrecen una experiencia de vida excepcional, tanto si se trata de una segunda residencia como de la vivienda principal. La sensación única de serenidad al vivir rodeado de tanta naturaleza hace que estas casas sean muy valoradas – de ahí la fuerte demanda, tanto por parte de compradores nacionales como internacionales."

MAGNO International School

CAMBRIDGE & A LEVELS
FUTURE-READY EDUCATION STARTS HERE

We Evolve. We Innovate. We Prepare for the Future.

At MAGNO International School, we're proud to announce two groundbreaking programmes for 2025-2026:

Cambridge International Education (CIE)

• Dreaming Big, Acting Boldly:

We're taking the next step toward global education by applying to become a Cambridge International School for Infant and Primary stages.

• Approval Visit:

The Cambridge team will conduct an inspection on 25 June, a pivotal milestone in our journey.

• Why Cambridge?

- A curriculum recognised in 160+ countries, opening doors to top universities Worldwide.
- Emphasis on critical thinking, creativity, and problem-solving—skills for jobs that don't even exist yet.
- Fluency in English as a global language of leadership and collaboration.

A-Levels Hybrid Programme (Year 12)

Launching in September 2025, this innovative model blends online rigor with personalized on-campus support, offering:

- Global recognition for university access (UK, Europe, USA, and beyond).
- Flexibility + mentorship through our partnership with the UK's National Extension College (NEC).
- Spanish university pathways with direct entry via A-Levels.

UNLOCKING POTENTIAL – MAGNO'S 2025-2026 VISION

🌐 A Global Passport for Every Student

Cambridge International Education at MAGNO means:

• No Borders, Only Horizons:

A curriculum designed to connect students with peers across continents, fostering cultural agility and global citizenship.

• Proven Excellence:

Cambridge qualifications are synonymous with academic rigor, trusted by universities and employers worldwide.

🎯 A-Levels: The Hybrid Advantage

• Tailored for Success:

- Students choose 4 subjects (2 compulsory, 2 elective) with weekly online classes, independent study, and MAGNO-led enrichment (PE, Extended Essay, PSHE).

• University Ready:

- Spain: Direct access via UNED (up to 10/14 points; PCE exams optional for higher scores).
- Abroad: Competitive edge for top-tier institutions like Oxford, Harvard, or ETH Zurich.

Student Profile:

- Bilingual Mastery: English proficiency (B2-C1)
- Mentorship: Dedicated advisors guide each student's academic and personal growth.
- Community: Blended learning doesn't mean isolation — students remain integral to MAGNO's vibrant culture.

The modern clubhouse features a fully equipped gym with fitness classes, a fantastic restaurant offering a menu del día, à la carte options, and tapas, along with a wellstocked pro shop. The changing rooms are clean and offer towels for convenience. Enjoy stunning views of Alicante, the sea, and the nearby mountains where eagles soar.

Located at the foot of the Sierra de las Águilas mountains, Alenda Golf Club offers a delightful 18-hole course with a challenging par 72. Suitable for all skill levels, it requires strategic use of every club in your bag.

The undulating greens demand precise putting, with regular flag changes testing your ability to read slopes and pace.

Designed by Roland Favrat and opened in 1999, the course is well laid out with short distances between tees and greens. The first nine holes have wide fairways, focusing on accuracy over power, while the back nine demands greater concentration on its technical layout.

The club also offers a spacious driving range, bunker, pitch & putt area, and a short game practice zone. The illuminated range is open until 10:00 pm. The modern clubhouse includes a gym, a restaurant offering a menu del día, à la carte, and tapas, plus a well-stocked pro shop. Enjoy views of Alicante, the sea, and the mountains where eagles soar.

The Best Daily Walking Routine ...

A Well-Structured Walking Routine for Improved Health and Mobility

A regular walking routine can greatly enhance health and mobility for older adults. This comprehensive plan incorporates warm-up exercises, interval training, steady-state walking, and a cool-down period to maximise benefits while reducing the risk of injury.

Warm-Up: Preparing Your Body (5-10 Minutes)

A proper warm-up readies your body for exercise and helps prevent injuries:

- Start with a gentle 3-minute stroll, swinging your arms naturally.
- Perform dynamic stretches such as leg swings, toe taps, and hip circles to improve flexibility and range of motion.
- Take deep breaths, inhaling through your nose and exhaling through your mouth, to regulate your breathing and prepare your cardiovascular system.

Main Workout

Interval Walk (20 Minutes)

Interval walking alternates between brisk and moderate paces to boost cardiovascular fitness and endurance:

- Minutes 0-4: Walk at a moderate, conversational pace.
- Minutes 4-5: Increase to a brisk pace to raise your heart rate.
- Minutes 5-8: Return to a moderate pace.

Repeat this pattern for the remainder of the 20 minutes, alternating 1 minute of brisk walking with 3 minutes at a moderate pace.

Steady-State Walk (20-30 Minutes)

Maintain a steady, moderate-intensity pace to build endurance. Aim for a pace where you can hold a conversation but feel slightly breathless.

- If 20 minutes feels challenging, start there and gradually increase to 30 minutes as your fitness improves.

Cool-Down (5-10 Minutes)

A proper cool-down prevents stiffness and gradually returns your heart rate to normal:

- Reduce your pace to a slow, relaxed walk for 3 minutes.
- Perform static stretches, holding each for 15-20 seconds per side. Focus on:
 - Calf stretches
 - Hamstring stretches
 - Side bends

Why This Routine Works

This balanced approach to walking combines cardiovascular exercise with recovery periods, making it ideal for older adults.

The interval segments strengthen the heart, while the steady-state portion builds endurance.

Regular walking helps to:

- Maintain mobility
- Support weight management
- Improve mental clarity
- Boost overall well-being

Tips for Success

- Wear supportive and comfortable walking shoes to protect your feet.
- Stay hydrated by bringing water, particularly on longer walks.
- Listen to your body and adjust the intensity if you experience pain or discomfort.
- Add variety by exploring new routes or incorporating light weights to increase intensity.

How Often Should You Walk?

To build a consistent habit, aim to follow this routine 2-5 times per week. Regular walking can significantly enhance overall health and fitness.

Remember, walking is more than just exercise—it's a pathway to better health, improved mobility, and a positive mindset. By sticking to this routine, you can strengthen your body, boost endurance, and enjoy the many benefits of staying active in your later years.

Dealing with Disruptive Neighbours

How to Handle Noisy Neighbours – A Calm and Practical Guide

Warmer weather invites more outdoor living, alfresco dining, and late-night gatherings. While this brings joy, it can also lead to occasional noise disturbances.

Whether it's music, barking dogs, or late parties, neighbourly noise is a common issue in many communities. Here's a straightforward guide to help manage it peacefully.

Step 1: Is It a One-Off or a Regular Issue?

- Temporary vs. Recurring Noise: Occasional noise from celebrations, renovations, or guests is often part of community life. Continuous disruption, however, may need addressing.
- Put Yourself in Their Shoes: Everyone enjoys socialising now and then—consider if the noise is unreasonable before reacting.

Step 2: Start with a Friendly Conversation

- Talk First: A calm, polite chat is often the best first step. Many people aren't aware their noise carries.
- Stay Calm if They React Badly: Avoid confrontation. Make a note of the conversation in case the issue continues.

Step 3: Involve Community Support

- Check with Other Neighbours: See if others are also affected—there's strength in numbers.
- Speak to the Community Manager or Building President: They may help mediate or address the issue formally.
- If They Rent: You can also contact the landlord if the problem persists.

Step 4: Know Your Rights

- Quiet Hours: Most areas have quiet time rules, commonly between 10pm and 8am.
- Contact Local Authorities: If the noise exceeds legal limits, local police can assess and, if needed, take action.
- Document Everything: Keep notes, recordings, or videos as evidence.

Step 5: Further Steps if Needed

- Mediation Services: Many local councils offer free mediation to resolve neighbour disputes.
- Formal Complaints: You can submit a written complaint to your local authority if mediation fails.
- Legal Action: This should be a last resort and used only for serious, ongoing problems.

Other Common Neighbour Disputes

- Shared Spaces: Rooftop use, rubbish in communal areas, or misuse of facilities.
- Community Fees: Non-payment by neighbours.

For most issues, a friendly conversation is still the best starting point.

Final Thoughts

Noise and neighbour disputes can happen anywhere, especially during summer months when we all enjoy the outdoors more.

Stay patient, communicate calmly, and use community or legal channels if needed.

Your right to a peaceful home is important—and most people are happy to work things out when approached the right way.

Electric scooters under the spotlight

Zooming around on a scooter? The rules just got tighter. You'll need to be 16 or over, wear a proper helmet, and stick to the road—pavements are out.

Many cities now require your scooter to be officially registered. Anyone caught flouting the rules could face a nasty fine.

Patinetes eléctricos bajo el foco

¿Te desplazas en patinete? Las normas se han endurecido. Debes tener 16 años o más, usar un casco adecuado y circular por la calzada—las aceras están prohibidas.

Muchas ciudades ahora exigen que tu patinete esté oficialmente registrado. Cualquiera que infrinja las normas podría enfrentarse a una multa considerable.

Cómo Manejar Vecinos Ruidososling

Una Guía Práctica y Tranquila

El buen tiempo invita a disfrutar más del exterior, cenar al aire libre y celebrar reuniones nocturnas. Aunque esto aporta alegría, también puede generar molestias ocasionales por ruido.

Ya sea música, perros ladrando o fiestas hasta tarde, el ruido vecinal es un problema común en muchas comunidades. Aquí tienes una guía sencilla para gestionarlo de forma pacífica.

Paso 1: ¿Es un Caso Aislado o un Problema Frecuente?

- Ruido Temporal vs. Recurrente: El ruido ocasional por celebraciones, reformas o visitas suele formar parte de la vida comunitaria. Sin embargo, las molestias continuas pueden requerir atención.
- Ponte en su Lugar: Todos disfrutamos socializar de vez en cuando. Antes de reaccionar, valora si el ruido es realmente excesivo.

Paso 2: Empieza con una Conversación Amistosa

- Habla Primero: Una charla tranquila y educada suele ser el mejor primer paso. Muchas personas no se dan cuenta de que su ruido molesta.
- Mantén la Calma si Reaccionan Mal: Evita el conflicto. Anota la conversación por si el problema continúa.

Paso 3: Involucra al Apoyo Comunitario

- Consulta con Otros Vecinos: Averigua si otros también están afectados—la unión hace la fuerza.
- Habla con el Administrador o Presidente de la Comunidad: Ellos pueden mediar o abordar el problema formalmente.
- Si Son Inquilinos: También puedes contactar con el propietario si el problema persiste.

Paso 4: Conoce Tus Derechos

- Horas de Silencio: La mayoría de las zonas tienen normas de descanso, comúnmente entre las 22:00 y las 08:00.
- Contacta con las Autoridades Locales: Si el ruido supera los límites legales, la policía local puede intervenir.
- Documenta Todo: Guarda notas, grabaciones o vídeos como prueba.

Paso 5: Pasos Adicionales si es Necesario

- Servicios de Mediación: Muchos ayuntamientos ofrecen mediación gratuita para resolver disputas vecinales.
- Reclamaciones Formales: Puedes presentar una queja por escrito si la mediación no funciona.

- Acción Legal: Debe ser el último recurso, solo para casos graves y persistentes.

Otros Conflictos Vecinales Comunes

- Zonas Comunes: Uso del tejado, basura en áreas compartidas o mal uso de instalaciones.
- Cuotas Comunitarias: Vecinos que no pagan su parte correspondiente.

Para la mayoría de los problemas, una conversación amistosa sigue siendo el mejor comienzo.

Reflexión Final

Los ruidos y conflictos con vecinos pueden surgir en cualquier parte, especialmente en verano, cuando todos disfrutamos más del aire libre.

Mantén la paciencia, comunica con calma y usa los canales comunitarios o legales si es necesario.

Tu derecho a un hogar tranquilo es importante—y la mayoría de las personas están dispuestas a cooperar si se les aborda de forma adecuada.

A new traffic rule in Spain?

Creating space for emergencies

Ever wondered what to do when traffic grinds to a halt on the motorway? Now it's the law to make a central "emergency corridor".

If you're on the left, edge left. Everyone else, move right. Leave that middle lane clear for police, ambulances, and fire engines—especially handy during summer getaways when traffic jams are all too common.

Creando espacio para emergencias

¿Alguna vez te has preguntado qué hacer cuando el tráfico se detiene en la autopista?

Ahora es ley crear un "corredor de emergencia" central. Si estás en el carril izquierdo, muévete hacia la izquierda. Todos los demás, hacia la derecha. Deja ese carril del medio libre para la policía, ambulancias y camiones de bomberos, especialmente útil durante las escapadas de verano, cuando los atascos son muy comunes.

Alicante and Málaga: key hubs for international buyers

With 42% of property transactions carried out by foreign buyers, totalling 21,751, Alicante firmly leads the rankings. The Costa Blanca remains the top choice for those in search of a second home in the sun. Málaga follows closely, also registering strong demand, with 10,261 transactions and 29% of sales involving international purchasers.

Spain's Digital ID

Spaniards can now carry their identity card right in their pocket — and no, we don't mean their wallet. The brand new 'MiDNI' app lets citizens load their official National Identity Document (DNI) onto their smartphones, turning the humble mobile into a high-security ID vault.

El DNI digital de España

Los españoles ahora pueden llevar su tarjeta de identidad directamente en el bolsillo — y no, no nos referimos a la cartera. La nueva aplicación 'MiDNI' permite a los ciudadanos cargar su Documento Nacional de Identidad (DNI) oficial en sus teléfonos inteligentes, convirtiendo el sencillo móvil en una bóveda de identificación de alta seguridad.

Banks Merge

The Spanish government has given the green light to the proposed merger between BBVA and Banco Sabadell, but has imposed strict conditions that may threaten the deal's financial feasibility. As a result, both banks will be required to continue operating separately for a minimum of three more years.

Los bancos se fusionan

El gobierno español ha aprobado la propuesta de fusión entre BBVA y Banco Sabadell, pero ha impuesto condiciones estrictas que podrían poner en riesgo la viabilidad financiera del acuerdo. Como consecuencia, ambos bancos deberán seguir operando de forma independiente durante al menos tres años más.

The Rising Demand for Homes with Pools in Spain

As the temperatures soar, a swimming pool has become more than just a luxury for many Spaniards — it's an essential retreat from the heat.

This highly sought-after feature is reshaping the real estate market, symbolising both exclusivity and comfort.

Homes with pools are seeing increased demand and higher value, particularly during the sunny months when a cool, relaxing space is invaluable.

Here are the key points:

- A Pool as a Key Feature: The presence of a swimming pool is becoming a significant factor in property value and desirability, particularly when the weather heats up.
- Limited Availability: Only 24% of homes currently for sale in Spain come with a pool. Despite this, the demand for pool-equipped properties is rapidly increasing.
- Rising Prices: This growing demand has caused property prices to rise by 10% in the first quarter of 2024 for homes with pools.
- The Pool Factor: Due to the combination of limited supply and rising demand, properties with pools are selling for around 55% more on average compared to those without.

However, the price difference varies across different regions of Spain, largely depending on the local availability of pool-equipped homes.

This trend indicates that homes with pools are becoming a more valuable asset in Spain's real estate market.

Short-Term Rental Laws in Spain:

What You Need to Know

If you're planning to rent out your property for short-term stays in Spain, it's essential to be aware of the legal requirements. Short-term rentals typically last for days or weeks, but not usually beyond three months.

Here are some key points to consider:

- National, Regional, and Community Rules: There are regulations at multiple levels, including national, regional, and even within the community or building where the property is located. Each level may have specific rules to follow.
- New Legislation Starting 2 January 2025: Spain is introducing new laws to regulate short-term rentals. The aim is to create a central platform that will track and manage rental activities.
- Registration Requirement: In the past, popular tourist areas like Andalusia and Valencia required property owners to register their rentals. Now, this requirement applies to some property owners nationwide. Starting 1 July 2025, you'll need to register your property with the authorities (Ventanilla Única) and obtain a unique registration number.
 - Without this number, you won't be able to list your property on platforms such as Airbnb or Booking.com.
 - Inspections and fines will be enforced for non-compliance.
- Note on Online Platforms: This system specifically affects properties listed on online platforms where direct booking and payment take place. If you don't use these platforms, registration may not be necessary – though this is causing some confusion.
- New Rules for Apartment Blocks (from 3 April 2025): If you own an apartment in a building, you'll need approval from 60% of other residents before you can offer it as a short-term rental.
 - This regulation aims to address concerns in cities like Madrid and Barcelona, where locals often deal with issues like noise from transient holiday guests.
 - Rentals that have already completed the necessary paperwork before 3 April 2024 won't be affected, but buyers should be cautious and consider avoiding properties where this may be an issue.

Tax and Costs to Consider

Once you confirm your property is eligible for short-term rentals, be aware of the following financial aspects:

- Taxes:
 - Rental income is taxable, and there may also be local tourist taxes.
 - Non-EU citizens pay a flat rate of 24% on gross rental income, with no deductions allowed. EU citizens may be subject to different rates depending on residency status.

• Management Costs:

- Community Fees: These are typically charged for maintenance of common areas in residential buildings.
- Annual Taxes: Be prepared for property taxes and other annual obligations.
- Insurance: Expect higher insurance premiums for rental properties.
- Agency Fees: If you're using a property management company, there will be agency fees.
- Upkeep: Short-term rentals experience higher wear and tear, so maintenance costs may be higher.

• Investment Considerations:

- If you're purchasing a property as an investment, you'll want to maximise bookings. Location and property features like a shared pool will be key factors to consider.
- For holiday homes, the main priority may be personal enjoyment rather than rental return, but you'll still need to ensure you have someone local to manage any emergencies.

• Marketing and Advertising Costs:

Listing your property on rental portals or running ads comes at a cost, so make sure you budget for this.

Positive Market Trends

- Rental Rates: The good news for owners is that rental prices, especially along the coast, have risen by 6-7% compared to last year. Since 2020, rates have increased by 40%, according to Grupo Tecnitasa.

While this is beneficial for property owners, it may make things more expensive for holidaymakers.
